Book Two: The 7 Years of Great Tribulation

The Bible predicts the future, but scholars widely disagree on what the Bible says! How can the average person sort out fact from fiction? Daniel 12:10 boldly states that the wise will understand prophetic chronology in the last days. Have those days already begun?

Retired hi-tech inventor and author Herbert R. Stollorz discovered that the dates of many key events predicted in the books of Daniel and Revelation fall between the years 2008 and 2018. Two of the keys that unlocked this mystery are the Hebrew Alphabet Number System and the Jewish feast and fast days. One of those fast days, Tammuz 17, commemorates the fall of Jerusalem prior to the destruction of God's Temple in Jerusalem.

Do not expect a theological treatise or the date for the return of Jesus Christ. Instead, you will read about the events of the soon-coming Great Tribulation described in detail and dated. The unique perspective of this applied scientist is revealed through the research methodology he used to unlock Bible mysteries built into the universe by God at the beginning of time. The same pragmatic approach that has helped to make functional hi-tech devices now provides challenging answers to questions like:

- How do you know that the Apocalypse will begin on December 21, 2008?
- How does 12 December 2012 link the Aztec, Chinese and Hebrew calendars?
- What has the jubilee (50) year gear between 1968 and 2018 got to do with the Bible's Rosetta stone and Daniel's 70 Weeks prophecy?
- How and when is the spirit world revealed to mortals? What are Antichrist's "Shock Troops"? Will mortal believers go through these trials?
- Why is it important to read both testaments of the Bible?
- How do Jewish festivals reveal the dates of the Apocalypse?

PREFACE

As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man. For in the days before the flood, people were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, up to the day Noah entered the ark; and they knew nothing about what would happen until the flood came and took them all away.

That is how it will be at the coming of the Son of Man.

(Matthew 24:37-39 NSRV)

What Is the Apocalypse?

The Old and New Testaments of the Bible prophesy a seven-year period of global chaos, suffering, death and destruction popularly known as the Apocalypse, the Last Days, the Great Tribulation or "the end of the world." These prophetic visions are not easy to understand. They use fantastic symbolism and shift perspectives between heaven and earth. Most prophecies focus on Israel, Jerusalem and the promise of a coming Jewish Messiah who will bring 1,000 years of peace, justice and prosperity to everyone in the world who survives these years of trial.

The big question about these prophecies has always been "when" they will happen. But the questions of "what" and "where" are important too. Many have avoided these questions by simply writing off God as the product of human imagination and relegating the Bible to the world's collection of myths and moral stories. Although proving the validity of the Bible and/or the reality of God is not the objective of my writings, I do think that what I have discovered and share in these pages will confirm both points with conviction.

Daniel, a remarkable Jewish scholar, wrote in 526 BC about several visions he had from God concerning the distant future, which is our present and near future. Some of his predictions have already come to pass—like Jesus appearing as Israel's promised Messiah. That fulfillment of Bible prophecy occurred more than five hundred years after it was written!

Apocalypse Prophesied

From Eden to the New Jerusalem

Many of Daniel's prophecies have yet take place, and the likelihood of their taking place in the next few years is no less certain than Jesus' birth, death and resurrection were to Daniel in 526 BC. Jesus, when answering his disciples' questions about the last days, told them to study Daniel's prophecies. (Mathew 24:15) In AD 96 Jesus gave the apostle John a great deal of additional information, which formed the Bible's last book called "The Revelation of Jesus Christ to John." Revelation's prophecies build on Daniel's. Both prophets foretold the end of our present civilization in a series of cataclysmic events similar to the destruction of humanity's first great civilization by the great Flood of Noah's day.

Some Bible scholars have treated these important prophecies about the last days of rebellious human history as spiritual allegories that possess only moral or theological significance. That approach made the question of "when" unnecessary and the prophecies themselves irrelevant to daily life.

Over the centuries other brave souls have dared to forecast the exact date when the Apocalypse would occur. Most were probably sincere. Many made an intentional profit out of their predictions. Of course, all of these past predictions about the dating of the Apocalypse were wrong, so today most refuse to seriously ask the question, "When will these things be?"

Predicting future events requires either a direct revelation from God or some detailed inside information about his plan for the universe. My books cover what the Bible reveals about God's plan for humanity and how that plan follows an observable pattern. If we can decipher that pattern properly, we can accurately predict the details of its outcome, including specific dates and locations.

My Rosetta Stone Discovery

I have written and published two books that can be found in or ordered by most book stores. I have also published it on the Internet. These two books focus on what the Apocalypse reveals to us about God's plan for humanity as well as a summary of what to expect as the Apocalypse unfolds. I give specific dates for many events. I believe that these dates are reliable but not

Book One: 7,000 Years of Bible History & Prophecy

Earthquakes, tsunamis, hurricanes, terrorism and endless wars... What is going on in this world? What will happen next? Is there a purpose in all of this human suffering?

At 70 years of age author Herbert R. Stollorz took a fresh look at the Bible. By using the same successful research techniques that produced a number of profitable hi-tech patents, he came up with some intriguing and pragmatic explanations of what the Bible has to say about the big questions about life on planet earth. Don't expect a theological treatise, rapturous escapism or a lot of footnotes. Instead, you will be challenged by his rational presentation of the soon-coming events that will change your life!

- What does the Bible and science tell us about God? Why did He create humans?
- Why will a loving God judge all nations with seven years of severe trials and tribulation leaving only about 10-20% alive at the end?
- What is the purpose for the Apocalypse? Why does it begin in heaven? What are angels? Can angels die?
- How does Noah's Flood help to date the Apocalypse?
- How might society's greedy exploitation of nature through genetic manipulation cause the Apocalypse to start even sooner?
- What makes Antichrist so different from all the previous world conquerors? Why is he so evil? What does number 666 mean?
- How will Jesus' coming 1,000 year government be structured so that true peace and justice finally becomes reality for all peoples?
- What happens when people die? What will hell be like?
- What will happen to Israel and the church during the Apocalypse? Why?
- What will the New Jerusalem be like? What does the rainbow really signify?

out of control. My sincere hope is that these two books will generate discussion in many circles and that they will educate many, even those who have rarely or never looked through the pages of a Bible.

Most people do not realize that the survival of humanity depends on biblical knowledge. The genetic imprint for the history of mankind is a reality we need to accept. He chose Israel in antiquity for His own reasons, and He will fulfill His remaining promises to them. We must learn and prepare in humble faith for the days of trial and blessing ahead.

absolutely guaranteed because my work is subject to human error as is any other person's. But the question of whether God will judge our present civilization or not is absolutely a definite positive, and most Bible students of prophecy think that the time of that judgment is coming soon.

My books developed out of a discovery I made in studying in Daniel's prophecies. I call it the Bible's Rosetta Stone. The consequences of this discovery are on the same scale as those that came from an historic archeological find made in Egypt by Napoleon's troops around 1800. This Egyptian Rosetta stone is a sizable piece of inscribed rock that communicated a single message three times with each parallel repetition being written in a different language. Two of the languages were known. The other was the then unknown hieroglyphs found painted or carved on ancient Egypt's tombs and monuments built by the Pharaohs and other high Egyptian officials from as early as 5,000 years ago. By comparing the hieroglyphs on the Rosetta stone with the other two languages, scholars were able to translate their meaning. Because of that discovery, today we can read about the religious myths, histories and many other aspects of that ancient civilization.

My own studies of biblical prophecy started out when I learned about an obscure Hebrew Alphabet Number System. I started to turn the pages of the Bible like I used to turn over stones in the forest when I was a boy just to satisfy my curiosity about what was under them. This natural inclination to curiosity has carried over into my life in a number of other ways, too. For one, as you may have already read, I became a successful inventor of many hi-tech components and instruments developed during the first wave of Silicon Valley's hi-tech research explosion in the 1960s and 1970s.

Examining the Hebrew Alphabet Number System from a Christian perspective opened up new territory in biblical understanding for me. I was ignorant of Jewish culture, holy days, traditions and ancient writings like the Torah. I applied the same research approaches to the Bible that had rewarded me as an inventor trained to figure out how to commercially apply the new laws of electronics and physics in order to solve hi-tech problems or to make a new product for sale. I became fascinated with the results that came from applying this same, successful research methodology to try to understand some of the many important Bible mysteries about the past and the future.

I now focused my uncommon gift of structured curiosity from God on the specifics of the seven-year Apocalypse first written about by Daniel over 500 years before Christ. Jesus recommended reading Daniel's prophecies about the last days, so I did. Then I set about to write what I found down in a book. This has been a difficult challenge for me as I am not a writer. It was further complicated by the on-going process of discovery as I continue to learn.

My investigation into the Bible's Rosetta Stone increased my curiosity in the Hebrew Alphabet Number System, which in turn led me to other discoveries which I lined up like pearls on a bracelet. I realized that most people around the world are just as unfamiliar with these ancient Hebrew concepts and traditions as I had been. They would have no idea what I was writing about because they are unfamiliar with the Bible or Jewish culture. I was confronted with a seemingly impossible task as I began to write.

In the end my one book became two as I have attempted to explain the ancient Jewish context of Biblical prophecy. The Rosetta Stone 7:5 ratio unlocks the understanding to many important scriptures so that we can begin to see a total picture of Why, When and What will happen after 2008. My first book gives an overview of God's plan for humanity and the role that the Apocalypse plays in it. In the process I give a fairly detailed overview of those seven years of trial and tribulation. My second book explains my research methods and how I applied the Bible's Rosetta Stone 7:5 ratio, which is comparable to the binary system in computer language. It also reveals that the number 7 is the middle of a list of 12 items or characteristics as 4 is the middle whole integer of 7.

My first book, Apocalypse Prophesied, is written from the perspective of this Rosetta Stone discovery. Daniel's prophecies reveal and describe God's 7,000-year plan for humanity. As recorded by Daniel and others, God has given prophecy in two dimensions as represented by two parallel numeric systems: one is 7-based and the other is 5-based. According to the Rosetta Stone principle, the Daleth (Hebrew letter for "d" or "4")

The Next Book

When the necessity for my second book, The Mystery of Tammuz 17, became finalized in concept, I needed someone to check out the Hebrew information I mentioned in my books. I needed someone who understood both Judaism and Christianity. In my research I discovered that it was impossible to grasp God's plan for humanity without including the biblical Scriptures and traditions of these two great religions.

This book required a rare combination of expert proficiency. Most scholars are only educated in one of these religions, not both. But God answered my prayer by sending to me Christopher J. Patton, MA, MBA. He worked as an archaeologist in Israel for five years while he completed in master's degree in that subject at the Hebrew University in Jerusalem. He is also familiar with two modern languages and has studied some ancient ones that are no longer spoken. Since my native tongue is German, I am glad he can speak German, too.

In our working relationship Mr. Patton demonstrated a level of insight that I have rarely found in my Christian circles, even among those who have received outstanding university education. I could send Christopher my first draft of the second book's chapters, and he would make me aware of how various ancient Hebrew and modern Jewish cultural implications (including the Jewish calendar of festivals and fast days) connected with Bible prophecy. He was a good teacher to me, and we spent a wonderful time together discovering God's revelation.

He consistently rose before dawn or worked late at night after coming home from his teaching job in order to send me corrected pages. Besides his substantial help with Mystery of Tammuz 17, he also edited and added technical corrections to the first book, Apocalypse Prophesied. He has young children and a wife, yet somehow he balanced his family life with his work. He truly represents a needle in a haystack sent to me by a gracious God. I am deeply indebted to him and to his patient family.

God's grace has chosen only the best to support me in this message to a religious world and a world power system that is

What these books are about:

God's plan for humanity as revealed in the Bible through application of the research principles and methods of a retired hi-tech inventor and former cuckoo clock maker. The results presented are internally confirmed through moderately detailed analytic comparisons with the Hebrew alphanumeric system and Jewish religious calendar. Outside confirmation comes from other scientific disciplines and notably with the Aztec calendar and the Chinese zodiac/calendar.

The methodological calculation of the dates for the benchmark events described in Apocalypse Prophesied are covered in the sequel to this book, Mystery of Tammuz 17: Discovering and Dating the Biblical Apocalypse. Both books are authored by Herbert R. Stollorz. Mystery of Tammuz 17 was written with the actively engaged help of Christopher J. Patton, who substantially contributed to its content.

Acknowledgments

I would like to give special recognition to a person without whom Apocalypse Prophesied would not have become a reality. Transcribing material from an English-speaking foreigner, and bringing order to a text that deals with ancient Hebrew, Bible doctrine, philosophy, science, and mathematics, called for an unusually talented and patient master of professionalism.

When I had this book translated into the German language, I truly became aware of this wordsmith's superb workmanship. I am confident that many other translators, as they work on future translations of this text, will greatly appreciate how her command of the English language makes it easier to translate this book into other languages.

I am deeply indebted and praise the Lord for having put me together with Mrs. Kathy Ide, freelance author and editor. I encourage you to visit her Web site, www.KathyIde.com. She has my highest respect and admiration.

dimension of our material universe of time and space is based on a numeric system of 7 while the Heh (Hebrew letter for "h" or "5") or heavenly dimension is found in the Bible as a 5-based system. The 7-day week is the most familiar example of a Daleth dimension number, and the 50 year Jubilee is the most familiar example of a Heh dimension number.

The Heh dimension of eternity already contains the whole spectrum of human history and prophecy. It has the whole 7,000 years of God's plan laid out like the spectral signatures identifying all the natural elements are embedded in the colors of the rainbow. According to this analogy, the spectral lines buried within the seven main colors of the rainbow behave like a chronological mechanism that marks the dates when events of the future Apocalypse laid out in the Heh dimension will become reality in the Daleth dimension of our material universe of space and time.

In another sense we find the book of Daniel is full of 7s while the book of Revelation written by the Apostle John is full of 5s. Thus, Daniel represents the "7" and Revelation the "5" in the Rosetta Stone's 7:5 ratio. As I continue to study the Bible, I am discovering that the Rosetta Stone seems to be imbedded throughout the Bible.

Bible prophecy is like a miniature Russian toy egg, which has many nested eggs of the same design, one within the other. My two books are structured similarly. Like a Russian toy egg, the 7-year pattern of chronological events lies within the 7,000 years of human history as a smaller egg aligned and enclosed within the larger one. For this same reason, we have two separate books. To sum it up, Daniel covers 7,000 years of human history and the book of Revelation covers the 7 years of future human history and some dates unknown to us.

I also applied what I call the Hebrew Alphabet Number System. Hebrew letters connote specific sets of imbedded meanings as well as express numerical values. This means that ideas can be simultaneously expressed on different levels by either writing a number or a letter. In my two books I will teach you how to apply them.

The contents of my books confound many theologians. Some Christian scholars are upset because of what I so plainly see written in the Bible. They have yet to really come to terms with what God has revealed He is doing, and how He is going to intervene soon in the affairs of humanity. Some of my discoveries overturn ingrained aspects of belief systems cherished for centuries. Thousands of published pages and books of scholarly opinions sanctioned by Christian seminars are now made obsolete by the Bible's Rosetta Stone. I have expected my books to create a storm of controversies, similar that created by the Egyptian Rosetta stone as it became more known in the public consciousness from around 1820.

Some scientists say that I must have lost my mind and the general public asks, "You mean our modern civilization will vanish?"

My answer is that our modern world will soon be radically different from the way it has been for the last 6,000 years, and it will never be the same again!

Conventional wisdom states "where there is smoke, there is fire." As the Lord makes possible, we are translating and publishing these two books, Apocalypse Prophesied and Mystery of Tammuz 17, in other languages - both on the Internet and in print. I am afraid that they will unnecessarily divide the Christian establishment, but I cannot neglect my responsibility to share what God has shown me in His Word.

The life of this book should be short-lived since it predicts the date of 21 December 2008 for the beginning of the Apocalypse. This present age will come to an end in 2015 after which God, the Creator of Heaven and earth, will birth a new civilization founded on His divine governmental system. The Bible predicts that it will bring a thousand years of peace and prosperity for all people everywhere.

The prophecies of the Bible are structured according to an intelligently designed system that conforms to the natural laws of physics. Like the genes within a living cell or like the physics described by Dr. Albert Einstein's mathematical equations, Bible Prophecy interconnects with the natural framework of the space-time dimension of our universe and planet.

Why should God's plan for humanity be structured differently from the rest of His Creation? When He created time, He divided it into past, present and future for His divine purpose. Past or

The social, cultural, theological and spiritual commentaries represent the best efforts of the authors to express their views and perspectives on the Bible in the context of historic and prophetic time, but the information presented in these books is not intended to constitute and should not be taken as any type of financial or legal advice.

First of all, we are only human and may be wrong when it comes to the specific facts and dates that someone might use in financial speculation, for example. Our methods of researching and understanding of the biblical texts are founded on some basic assumptions that are either only discernable spiritually at this time or may turn out to be incomplete.

Secondly, we are not in a position to and do not intend to offer any type of advice about the legal and material affairs of any other person's life. That is for each of us to do responsibly for ourselves as God leads us.

Our recommended course of life is to obey God above all and so far as it depends on us, to live in peace with all persons.

Faith in the Future Foundation is a private charitable, educational and religious organization dedicated to the evangelism of nonbelievers. The foundation also seeks to encourage and expand the horizons of those who already accept the Bible as God's Word and revelation of His mercifully loving and righteous plan for humanity. It is a railroad train dedicated to delivering the oracles of God to any and all who would receive them for as long as God gives us the means and ability to do so. This is the vision shared by its original directors.

Faith in the Future Foundation has come into existence due to the generosity of Herbert R. Stollorz, the author of Apocalypse Prophesied and Mystery of Tammuz 17. Part of the foundation's mission is to utilize Mr. Stollorz's writings in its programs of education, encouragement and evangelism. The foundation is not restricted or limited by this aspect of its mission. Purposefully it provides a vehicle for cooperation between ministries and individuals devoted in charitable service to their fellow humans in the name of Jesus Christ, Yeshua the Messiah.

future is not really any different for Him, though time can be a critical factor in human affairs. We are given only so many years of mortal life, for example.

My discovery of a "Rosetta stone" in Daniel's cornerstone prophecy in the Bible left me no other option than to write about it. Now it is up to you to read them and consider their content carefully. I believe that what you read will change your life, even if you don't agree with everything I have written.

Read my books and become informed. Yes, even if you have a PhD, I guarantee that you will become more educated about these vital issues. Life questions should be our highest priority, and information concerning your survival is more important than the busy work of your daily tasks. In the very least you will need to decide about your investments, but frankly, the prospect for your eternal life is far more important than your retirement account.

Take a break and entertain a new perspective about your life. Ask some of the really important questions, "Where am I going? How should I plan my life? What if that 'crazy' hi-tech inventor is right?"

God's 7,000-year Plan

As I examine our orderly universe, I have noticed that humanity has a number of viewpoints about its nature. In the west we basically have two diametrically opposed viewpoints about the universe. The biblical one states that all things were created for God's purpose, which I have termed "God's Plan for Humanity." The materialistic viewpoint, usually presented as science, postulates a random universe that arose by chance that exists for no other purpose than that it is, for as long as it will be. Which is it? Both cannot be true.

My first book, Apocalypse Prophesied, describes God's 7,000-year plan for this earth, as supported by 1,000 Bible references. This plan includes 6,000 years of human history and 1,000 years of prophetic events yet to take place. With its many verses it has become like a miniature Bible that explains the Creator's plan for humanity and the reasons why we exist. The 10th chapter of this book focuses on the cuckoo clock analogy. It is a summary explanation of special historic events that correspond to parallel events that will take place during the 7 years of the Great Tribulation. We have a saying that history repeats itself, and my two books demonstrate where it does so prophetically.

My second book, Mystery of Tammuz 17, explains the methodology I used to determine the dates of the Apocalypse. It also discusses the collapse of our present civilization and other prophesied events of those seven years. I make correlations with the Hebrew Alphabet Number System as well as with the Aztec calendar and the Chinese zodiac cycles.

I invite you to journey with me in these books as we move from one concept to another, presented in roughly the order that I discovered them.

Who am I to Write This?

I never thought I would write a book. I am an inventor of high-tech devices by profession and making cuckoo clocks was once my hobby. These days I spend more time playing my accordion than making clocks. But for the past two years or so, I have spent more time with my computer keyboard than with my accordion's keyboard!

If you want to learn a little bit more about who I am, then read my Forward, Who is Herbert R. Stollorz? If you are still hung up on the dates, then you can skip to the end and read my Postscript, Can God Change His Schedule?

The Bottom Line

Within the context of eternity, anyone I meet or who reads my books is my friend. As a faithful friend, should I not wake you up from sleeping if I see that your house is on fire and there is still time to escape? It would be a shame if I waited for a professional fire marshal to tell you after the fact, when it was too late.

I have no choice but to proclaim God's coming judgment to a world gone terribly wrong. I believe the events described in my books will definitely happen. God has used me to write this all down for you. Please ask him for understanding as you read.

What is Faith in the Future Foundation?

The ideas, teachings, implied theology and biblical exegesis presented on these pages represent the beliefs and opinions of Herbert R. Stollorz, the author, and to a lesser extent they also represent those of Christopher J. Patton. They do not knowingly represent the positions of any organized church, ministry or spiritual movement. Neither do they represent in full the teachings or objectives of any political organization or social movement known to us.

Obviously, there may be aspects or portions of our material that parallel or even derive from the teachings and beliefs of others. We do not live in a vacuum and believe our fundamental faith in and understanding of the Bible to fall within the broad parameters of evangelical Christian context. Faith in the Future Foundation's official Statement of Faith simply focuses on the essentials:

- The Bible is God's Word, the divine revelation of His will and purpose for life.
- Jesus Christ is the only way of salvation by faith.
